DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement filed 27 Aug. 2002 has been considered and made of record.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 5-16 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 5-16 have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1744

Claim 3 is indefinite because it cannot be clearly determined how the further limitation recited in claim 3 differs from the “means for injecting a pressurized gas into said inner compartment” recited in claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Whitney (GB 2 202 549).

The reference of Whitney discloses a disposable reactor that includes an outer envelope (flexible outer membrane) and at least one inner envelope (flexible draught tube). The envelopes are sealed with respect to the external environment and the device includes a gas injection means (sparger) for the inner compartment. The envelopes communicate with one another such that liquid medium flows between the compartments (See Figure 2). The exhaust (See figure 2) provides means for removing gas from the outer compartment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1744

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35

U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

10. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

11. Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Whitney (GB 2 202 549) in view of Mulder et al.(EP 0 325 337).

The reference of Whitney has been discussed above.

The above claims differ by reciting that the inner envelope includes lateral opening and that the bottom opening is greater than the lateral opening.

Art Unit: 1744

The reference of Mulder et al. discloses that it is known in the art to provide draft tubes within a reactor device with lateral openings that are less than the area of the bottom openings (See page 3, lines 18-24).

In view of this teaching, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide the inner envelope of the primary reference with the lateral opening disclosed by the reference of Mulder et al. for the known and expected result of reducing the hysteresis effects in a gas lift reactor.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The references of Gaugler et al.(US 6,432,698) and Hiromitsu et al.(JP 02-042971) are cited as prior art that pertains to airlift bioreactors.
